HEY NEIGHBOR. 👋🏾
ALLOW US TO RE–INTRODUCE OURSELVES.

A Nonprofit 501(c)(3). A Community–Based, Artist–Centered Organization.

Over the last decade, Versatile Image has evolved — from helping businesses craft their stories through an artistic, social-impact-driven lens, to becoming something rooted even closer to home: a nonprofit dedicated to equipping creative professionals and entrepreneurs with the tools to build real, sustainable income.

Our mission is to bridge the gap between cultural expression and economic opportunity, particularly within underrepresented communities. We do this by equipping creative professionals and entrepreneurs with the tools, strategy, and infrastructure needed to monetize their art form and build sustainable income. As creatives generate revenue, those skills and resources are reinvested back into the communities they come from.

We bring this mission to life through three core programming tracks:

OUR PROGRAMMING

Track 1: Business & Operational Infrastructure +

Track 2: Creative Technical Skills +

Track 3: Community Open Workshops +

Together, these tracks have already reached over 300 participants — real people building real careers out of their art.

Novelist Toni Morrison once spoke about the unique responsibility artists carry to drive change that other institutions can't. We carry that same belief forward: Versatile Image exists to be a catalyst for positive change through artistic expression and community-focused economic development.

FROM ROADBLOCKS TO THE

UNITY BLOCK PARTY

Originally a traveling Say Their Names memorial that began in Oregon during the summer of George Floyd's death in 2020, the UNITY Block Party: Discovering the U in Community has transformed into a celebration that fosters joy and economic growth in Utah's arts and culture scene. This event aims to bring individuals together while providing local talent and businesses with a platform, all while funding a groundbreaking business incubator space. This initiative is designed to diversify the small business landscape by serving as a vital resource for creative professionals and supporting underserved and underrepresented startups and small businesses.
